Mahatma Gandhi Memorial Hospital commemorates Nurses Day

Mahatma Gandhi Memorial Hospital commemorated Nurses Day on 30 May 2018.

This is the day which is celebrated around the world to mark the contributions nurses make to the society. The theme of the day was “Nurses a voice to lead - Health is a human right”

Dr. LJ Sobekwa, CEO welcomed the guests with warm hands and commended nurses for their good work and encouraged them to be proud of themselves.

Mrs SOS Mbatha, Acting Nursing Manager outlined the purpose of the day as to acknowledge the good work done by the nurses.

She motivated them to follow on the steps of Florence Nightingale who sacrificed the wealth of her family and dedicated her life to serve society with love and compassion.

The speaker of the day, Mrs C Sosibo, Director: Nursing Services requested nurses to be proud of themselves because this is a chosen profession. She explained that the nursing profession is a calling and a principle of life, as nurses are the ones who are chosen to save God’s creation.

She explained that nurses are always there in every human’s lifetime as they are available during the birth and death. She encouraged nurses to always strive for excellence when executing their duties.

Mrs C. Sosibo explained that South African citizens are entitled to quality health care and it is their right which is enshrined in the constitution of the country. She encouraged nurses to always serve patients with a smile irrespective of their backgrounds.

Pastor A Chita, Hospital Chaplain motivated nurses to meet the patients’ needs like the Lord Jesus Christ in the bible.
