East Coast Radio Visits

Christmas came a bit too early for our paediatric patients. Father Christmas came in a form

Of Durban's number one station, East Coast Radio. The children faces lit up the moment they were given toys and they seemed to forget about their stay in the hospital.

The institution sends its sincere appreciation to all those who donated towards this worthy initiative.

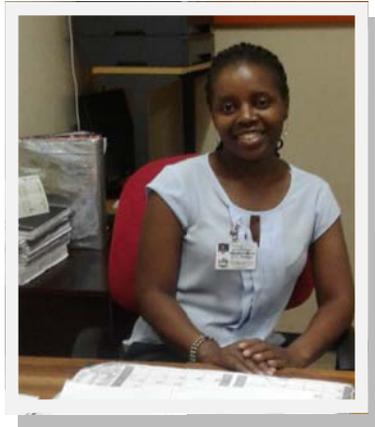

And in keeping with the Christmas spirit, the institutional crèche had an end of year celebration for the little ones. They were treated to presents which were presented by our own Santa Clause.
