Hlengisizwe CHC commemorates gender based violence against women and children

Const. M. Msomi and Mr S. Ngcobo, PRO with other participants displaying placards to fight GBV

Hlengisizwe CHC joined hands with other stakeholders to commemorate gender based violence against women and children (16 Days of Activism).

The stakeholders that participated in this campaign were Mpumalanga SAPS, Social Development, Ethekwini Municipality and Mental Health.

The aim of the campaign was to bring awareness and heed the call to the community that GBV must come to an end. The campaign took place during the time whereby they were lot of incidents of women who were brutally murdered in Hammarsdale because of gender based violence.

These women perished in the hands of men who were supposed to protect them.

The campaign started on a high note with a motorcade. The GBV messages were cascaded to the community through loud hailing, pamphlets, placards and talks.

The stakeholders also used the platform to bring awareness about the impact of COVID 19 pandemic and encouraged the community to adhere to all precautions which entail social distancing, wearing of masks, hand washing and sanitizing.

The community was educated on basic hand hygiene whereby they were encouraged to use soap and water to prevent the spread of infections which include COVID 19.

The stakeholders planted a Natal mahogany tree (umkhuhlu) at Hlengisizwe CHC in remembrance of those who passed on because of Gender Based Violence.

The Natal mahogany tree (umkhuhlu) gives life and hope to human beings. It provides shade and exchange of oxygen and carbon dioxide.

Ms H.Khumalo, Social Worker : Department of Social Development and Ms P. Ndlovu, Social Worker : Hlengisizwe CHC gave a talk on different types of abuse which entail verbal, emotional, sexual and physical abuse. She encouraged both women and men to break silence in order to get assistance.

She requested attendees to always be vigilant of warning signs of abusive relationships in order to move out before it is too late.

Constable M. Msomi, Mpumalanga SAPS encouraged women to refrain from tolerating abusive behavior from their partners, but to report such incidents to the nearest police station.

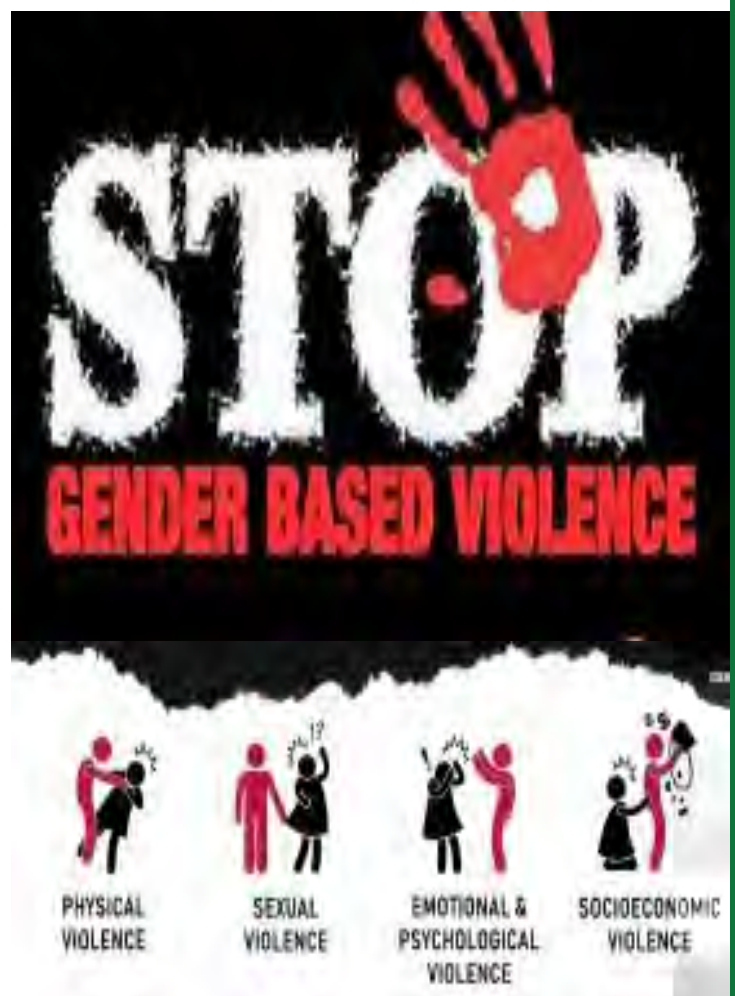

She warned those women who open cases of abuse against their partners and withdraw them because such action promotes gender based violence.

She explained the process of opening and investigating cases related to GBV. She assured attendees that cases related to GBV have been prioritized in each an every police station and in a judicial system.

Mrs S. Mtshali ,Social Worker : Mental Health urged participants to protect Mental Health Care Users because they are the easy targets of various abuse.

The community was delighted to be equipped with such a valuable information which will guide and protect them in their daily lives.

MEET OUR NEW PHC MANAGER

S. DLAMINI : AMN - PHC

Iwould like to thank Hlengisizwe CHC Management for trusting me with this crucial position which plays a significant role in achieving departmental objectives.

Secondly I would like to appreciate warm welcoming from our PHC clinics that I am responsible for which entail Mpumalanga, Peaceville, Ntshongweni, Shongweni, Fredville and Msunduzi Bridge Clinic.

It is crucial for all of us to support each other to ensure that our clinics comply with the Ideal Clinic requirements.

The Ideal Clinic Compliance will ensure that our clinics provide optimal health care to our clients.

I would like to request all staff members to treat our clients with respect and dignity.

This can only be achieved by rendering health services in the Spirit of Ubuntu.

Lets work together in fighting COVID 19 in our communities, working hand in hand with community structures.

Kindly remember that the victory in fighting COVID 19 is certain, SIYAYINQOBA ICOVID 19.
